Defendant.

Case No: 235900706
Judge: ELIZABETH A. HRUBY-MILLS
Date: August 22, 2025

DEFENDANT'S EXHIBIT LIST

Pursuant to Rule 16 of the Utah Rules of Criminal Procedure, Defendant Peter Golub hereby discloses the following individuals he may call as witnesses at the trial scheduled to commence on August 26, 2025:

1. Corporal Brock Ernstsén

Utah Highway Patrol
c/o Salt Lake County District Attorney's Office

Anticipated Testimony: Corporal Ernstsén will be cross-examined regarding the basis for the initial traffic stop, his administration of the Field Sobriety Tests, his operation of the Intoxilyzer 8000 device, the timing of the Miranda warnings, and the contents of his police report and prior sworn testimony.

2. "Officer 2" (Unidentified in Police Reports)

Utah Highway Patrol
c/o Salt Lake County District Attorney's Office

Anticipated Testimony: This officer, who was present at the scene but is unnamed in the State's reports, may be called to testify regarding his personal observations of the encounter, including the Defendant's driving pattern, physical condition, and statements. He may also be questioned regarding his role in the search of the vehicle and the arrest of the Defendant, and any discrepancies between his observations and those of Corporal Ernstsén.

3. Peter Golub

Defendant

Anticipated Testimony: The Defendant preserves his constitutional right to testify regarding the events of September 6, 2023, including his actions prior to the traffic stop, his interactions with law enforcement, his performance on the field sobriety tests, and his physical and mental state throughout the encounter.

4. Tatyana Golub

Owner of the impounded vehicle

Anticipated Testimony: The owner of the vehicle can testify to why Mr. Golub's borrowed her vehicle, his intentions, and his schedules for September 6–7, 2023. Including her testimony will shed light on Mr. Golub's previous actions, his ability to operate a vehicle, and his motive for driving the vehicle the night of September 6, 2023.
